

The Prayer Life Of . . .

JESUS CHRIST

part one: Jesus' Teaching On Prayer

<sup>esf</sup> LUKE 18:1-17

1. In a word, the parable of the unrighteous judge teaches what aspect of our prayer life?

2. What was the widow's problem in the story?

3. Why didn't the judge care?

4. How did the widow get what she wanted?

5. Are we guaranteed to get what we pray for if we ask repeatedly? Why or why not?

6. In a word, the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector teaches that we should have what attitude in prayer?

7. Why did Jesus choose these two characters to illustrate his point?

8. How might we be like this Pharisee?

9. How might we be like this tax collector?

10. Is this parable intended to teach us anything about posture in prayer? For example, are we supposed to bow our heads?
